PIZARRO.

History and contemporary newspaper literature prove that Pizarro is a fighting name. The conqueror of Peru would have returned to Spain in the garb of a runaway sailor but for his splendid decision of character in tracing a line with his sword-point over which he and a few of his followers crossed, to conquer or succumb. Three hundred years have in nothing weakened the blood of the Pizarros, and our Minister of 'Culto's' thundering letters to old Mr Sarmiento show the same metal as the sword-point of the Spaniard who conquered Peru.

When Minister Pizarro's first letter appeared, we all took a humdrum view of the matter, condemning the unmeasured language of such letters coming from the pen of a Minister, but we little knew what was coming, and the tremendous fire that since succeeded—the blow upon blow which Mr Pizarro deals old Mr Sarmiento, hitting him so hard and so fast that he has no time to get up, and then striking out in a free fight, knocking down all those around his adversary, kicking them into the mud, and then calling out for others to come on—shows a pluck that has dumfounded the whole town and won for Mr Pizarro, spite of his rather coarse language, the approval of many who at first censured him.

If we have never read Ministerial letters more censurable in style, so also we have never before read Ministerial letters so refreshingly honest. Sarmiento seems at last to have found his match, and we doubt if there is another man in the Republic save Mr Pizarro who would so coolly tread on the old man's coat-tails. Everyone who has read these letters, which we now give in English at foot, must have felt that, spite of all their rude language and epithets, a vein of truth and honesty runs through the whole correspondence, which makes us all slap Mr Pizarro on the back and exclaim involuntarily, go it Pizarro! Mr Sarmiento is, of course, blamed for the whole row, although in truth he has as much to do with the real essence of the squabble as Mr Parnell. The fight, although a free one, has nothing whatever to do with education of which Sarmiento is the supposed champion. There is not a particle of grammar, or nonsense, or learning in the issue, and the great ability of Mr Pizarro is that he has trotted out the old man from his quis, his quaes and his quods, to give genius to a fight that began with double stamps in the Provincial Bank, has since extended to the Cabildo, and before over, if Governor Rocha does not took out, will end in the complete overthrow of the 'Incas.'

B. Aires, Jan. 21st

Sr. Don D F Sarmiento

My poor Friend

Where on earth are you going to, turned into a Babieca, Del Valle holding you tight by the nose and using you to frighten the Moors in the Government? In Heaven's name what do you mean? Can it be that you, like the 'criollos' of B. Aires, are opposing the political evolution that will give a definite organization to the country after so many years of suffering?

It is possible that you can consider legitimate the pretensions of Governor Rocha, who has passed a year of his government in observing the transit of Venus and establishing a 'Casa de Monta'? Do you think it right that he should refuse to accept the position given to him by events which he helped to bring about, in order that he might have the honour of ruling the largest and richest of all the Argentine provinces

What would you do my friend, if you were in Rocha's skin, with Del Valle and the other Aristarchuses of the Nacional in the same boat with you, their object being to frustrate the inevitable laws of history which transform great associations of human beings into solid nations?

Would you stand up in the public Plaza and challenge the exclusive right of the President of the Nation to wear the sash of a Captain General, or throw stones at the Minister of Justice when he orders the National Courts to be installed in the old Cabildo?

Ah! my poor Sarmiento, how slavish the weight of years can make a man, and what a moment for you to remind me of my good brother Modestino?

Beyond the Marquez Bridge stretches an immense territory which will one day be peopled by millions of men. It is that part of the Argentine family property which has fallen to the 'eldest daughter' of our former glories. Fresh glories are in store for her, not those glories which drip with the blood of battles and are adorned with the victor's laurel, but those which drip with Plenty that feeds the children of Adam, and which, obedient to Divine Inspiration, has its home on our vast plains and is borne on every wind, to raise Jacob's tents on them as well as on those mountains whose summits are lost in the skies!

Look at Buenos Aires! Her handcuffs have been knocked off, it is time; but she is still under the brutal dominion of the country boor or the electoral thief, through the Juez de Paz or the Military Commander who can manipulate a successful election. It is a headless province, more unfortunate than San Luis, and more deserted by its own sons than Rioja. The latter has at least some kind of a Government, while the historic province of B. Aires is reduced to an immense territory which neither has nor can ever have any kind of Government whatever under the incompetent domination of its lords and masters the Rochas, Del Valles, Lopezes etc.

Poor Sarmiento! The iron will, the superior intellect that has lectured two generations, the ex-President of a great republic, transformed in his declining years into a political manniken, a feeble instrument in the hands of sceptical boys, who laugh at his venerable white locks, despise his authority, and use him as an instrument of their sensual ambition and lust of power.

Poor Sarmiento! Poor friend of my dear brother Modestino! Why do you not die like him, or retire into a quiet and respected private life, surrounded by the attentions due to age and veneration for the honourable scars you received in those sad battles of public life?

Yes, my unfortunate friend, these are the prayers of one who, in taking leave of you now, in the aberration of your waning years, forgets neither the family reminiscences which you have awakened in my soul, nor the services of the old patriot now broken down by age and no longer fit for public life.

Yours sincerely

M D Pizarro

FOURTH EPISTLE.

January 22d 1882

Sr Don Domingo F Sarmiento.

At seventy years of age the mind grows dim like the watery eyes of the old man; both vision and judgment are shrouded, and moral forces give way with physical debility.

Political Science has fixed a term to the life of man in his public career. Thus death in public life precedes the grave, and in spite of exceptions to the fiat, Don Domingo, you may in vain pretend that you are not included in the rule; long ago you were buried alive, useless for anything, gnawing at reputations and exciting hilarity, mistaking for political vitality the galvanic movements of a battered and used-up organism that moved at the pleasure of Del Valle, Lucio Lopez and others, who parade you as the corpse of the bid.

They are idle young men, unscrupulous, laugh at the dead and resuscitate them to frighten fools.

You join Rocha, Del Valle, Lagos Garcia and Lopez, because they rub the heat of public life into your cadaverous rigidity.

They who could not stand before the noble pride of Alsina stand before you, enervated in mind, senile and obedient to them in the midst of your vehement convulsions.

They know too well that the nervous contractions of your temper are not energetic impulses of your will. Years have elapsed since you lost your character and have become a machine of Del Valle, who knows the secret to wind you up to paroxysms or to inactivity.

The Republicans make use of you on this account.

Well! you know this party, diminutive and impotent even in the culminating stage of its power and force; you know its birth, history and prospects.

An embryo of crime, it was born of perfidy, ingratitude and treason to its noble chief Alsina, who now raises his mighty hand in the Plaza Libertad as if vociferating imprecations and destruction to the traitors he warmed in his bosom.

They imbibed their mother-milk in perfidy and treason, and the Acts of the Belgrano Congress prove the ignoring of their political apostacy and the condemnation it reaped at its birth in the very sanctuary of the law.

Thus was born and thus has thrived the local party of the province of Buenos Aires, that, in power today, already revolves plans of personal ambition and purposes of perfidy and treason to the oaths taken in Belgrano, Greeks!

And it is with these men that you side, Sarmiento, now the General of the Nation, the constitutionalist, unsurpassed in lore and civic instruction; you offer your services to purposes reactionary or hostile to the definite organization of the Republic in the evacuation of the Capital by the Provincial Government, that lives and wishes to continue living at the root of the tree it is gnwaing, abandoning the Province it should govern. Fools!

A Government that is no Government; a Province that is no Province; a government without jurisdiction; a province without government—this is the constitutional situation to which you lend the authority of your name by joining the republican party. Stay away: the republicans, without party, without flag; credo in public opinion.

And these are the men who aspire to govern the Republic some day!

These are the men who already want to secure the official positions of the Casa Rosada!

These are the men who oppose the policy they call that of drums and fifes, of Syllabus and Ordenanzas!

They are perfectly right—they recoguize no morals and no laws; they are logical in their policy. The condition of their existence is outside the pale of law and morals.

Sarmiento! you are one of them, and in vain you try to smuggle over Mitre, ashamed to be alone in the midst of such a set. Mitre will not go, even were you to remind him that once I bitterly took up the nauseous imputation that is being repeated today by that fool, L. V. Lopez, the immaculate.'

'What men! ye gdos,'

Sarmiento! good bye. I leave you to your fate with Del Valle and Lucio Lopez.

When you awake from your dream; when the indifference of those who now flatter you seizes you, remember that the brother of Modestino, whatever be your fate in political events, has surplus warmth in his soul for all that is noble and great.

M. D. Pizarro.

FIFTH EPISTLE

January 1882

Sr. Don Domingo F. Sarmiento.

The disease is in its crisis: we have entered the interesting period of the contest: here I am involved in duels. I have just received a challenge from Del Valle, who would not cede to you this right as head of the party.

Tan solo de pensarlo
A mi me da pavor.

I have answered with a refusal. This is teaching by example, Don Domingo. Do you approve my conduct, or do you agree with Del Valle and Lucio Lopez that questions of honour should be settled in duels?

Your opinion in this matter would be interesting: you, who are a schoolmaster and are always reminding people of your profession as a pedagogue and your duty to teach the people.

Well, Don Faustino, here you have a theme for many lessons.

I have already given one to the frivolous youth of the Capital; the best and most convincing one, that of example.

Boys! Bullets do not settle questinos of honour; it is forbidden by law, by religion, by morals and by our civilization.

These you must obey.

We must leave the barbarians; we must think of family, country, and of humanity that suffers from that barbarous custom, unknown to the ancients.

You think I preach like a provincial curate.

Don't be ignorant, and hear others you cannot contradict like me—

"The brave man despises a duel, and the good man abhors it.

J. B. Rousseau

"Duels are not an institution of honor, but a barbarous and injurious fashion.

J. J. Rousseau

"The abolition of duels was one of the great services done to the country.

Voltaire

Voltaire and Rousseau were no 'Saints' or fanatics."

Well; hear them.

What do you think of this lesson Don Domingo? No doubt I meet with your approval; and, if not better; then I have struck the nail on the head.

As regards Del Valle's challenge, I may say that you cannot fight with whomsoever it pleases you to attack; there are rules. I might have reminded Pellegrini and Alem of the fact, but I did not care to do so, because.....

I have no necessity of the pretext considering my answer quite enough, although those gentlemen would not accept it as written.

The duel question is terminated; the lawsuit with the republicans remains.

I am coming; but tell your friends to wait for a moment: I must go to my bureau of the Ministry of Justice, Worship and Public Instruction.

On my return we will begin the campaign.

And it is a grand campaign, D. Domingo, nothing less than that the province of Buenos Aires may get a capital and remain in constitutional condition.

There is San Nicolas de los Arroyos, for provisional capital. How that place would advance, how the whole province would be the gainer by the move.

But should San Nicolas not please Del Valle, Rocha or Lucio Lopez, there are many other places in the provinces that might suit,

This is a question of honor for Dr Del Valle. What greater glory could he dream of for himself and his friends, than the foundation of a great city in his birthplace, under his influence, his prestige, and that of his friends?

This is the question, and no other the question is not to kill Ministers, or to be killed by them, which is more probable. The political organization of this capital and of the rich province of Buenos Aires is the topic of the hour.

Republicans! if you are, patriots! to the task! your pledged faith, your oaths of Belgrano are at stake.

Urge them—Sarmiento—urge them since you have so much influence in your party.

Are you unable? Are you a mere tool of Del Valle or Rocha?

Ah—Alas—what an eclipse of talent and glory—what a sad sunset of genius?

Don Domingo, good-by—till another day.

M. D. Pizarro

DEL VALLE'S CHALLENGE

Dr Pizarro received from Del Valle's seconds Pellegrini and Alem, a challenge to fight a duel. Dr Pizarro favored them with the following note—

Messrs Pellegrini and Alem

Del Valle is not a fighting-card. His challenge is a pretext to remove me from my ministerial post, and is a political trap I cannot fall into.

On the other hand, I have so much to do that I cannot afford myself the sad pleasure of killing a pigeon.

Will anybody think I fear Del Valle?

Do you think it yourselves?

This cannot be.

Such is my answer.

M D Pizarro

BAHIA LAND AUCTION.

The Bahia Blanca land auction last week is a matter of general interest to our subscribers in the South. Within the last year or so numbers of Englishmen have settled down in the neighbourhood of the lands sold, and the certainty that in a couple of years the Southern Railway will be extended to Bahia Blanca is perhaps one of the chief causes for the land speculation going on down there.

The Manantiales estancia, some 8 square leagues of land, is known to all Bahia Blanca people as the best property in that district. Although the auctioneer announced Dr. Ocantos as the purchaser, we are informed that the land was only bought in his name but for another party; how true this may be we cannot say, but it is quite evident from the price paid by the buyer, whoever he is, that the lands will be stocked, and there are no finer lands for cattle and sheep to be found in the whole country.

The Nueva Roma lands, although settled on for the last 25 years, are pretty much the same to-day as when Olivieri's soldiers first made their farms thereon. We believe that had these lands been in the hands of the sheepfarmers of the north, they would be worth much more than what they sold for, but South camps, from one cause or other, have been very neglected, and it is only now when the sheepfarmers can go no farther North, that they turn their attention to the far South lands.

It may not be generally known that not far from Curumalan there is a river called the Arroyo del Alfalfa, where the pasturages are so splendid that an Englishman just up from there calls them English meadow lands. Only the other day an Englishman drove his cattle and sheep from Curumalan out to these lands, which are at present as wild and unsettled as nature made them; yet our friend was not very long squatted down, when Señor Dantas, the Provincial Chief of Police ordered him off; alleging that these lands belong to the Provincial Government of Buenos Ayres, and no one is allowd to settle on them. It is to be hoped that since the Chief of Police is so very strict, that the Government will see fit to have these lands at once put up for auction, and sold to farmers who cannot afford to pay the high rents now charged for puestos in the near partidos.

A year ago the Manantiales Estancia if put up for sale would hardly have fetched 100,000$ m|c. per league, to day it realises 300,000$ m|c. and a year hence it will fetch 500,000$ m|c. per league. It is the opinion of the land brokers that the South is now advancing more rapidly than the North.

GAMBETTA'S OVERTHROW

Now-a-days the fortunes of a country do not hang on the life of a man. A ruler dies; a Minister goes out; there is always somebody to replace him. Nobody is missed. President Garfield was shot, but the fortunes of the United States did not depend on his life; nor does this fall of Leon Gambetta in the least imperil the position of the French Republic. France can do without Gambetta, as well as it did without Thiers or MacMahon. But the fall of Gambetta is an eloquent proof of the fact that great men may fail where mediocrities succeed. The fact is illustrated in scenes of every day life when we see talents and merits eclipsed by dishonesty triumphant. In general, now-a-days, to be a great man, one must be successful, but such is not the case with Gambetta; he has been unsuccessful, but he remains a great man.

It is a melancholy mistake for statesmen to arrive before their time; it is just like putting the cart before the horse. Gambetta committed a serious mistake when he accepted the post offered him by M Grevy; it was unwittingly a political trap into which he fell immediately. He entered the Cabinet with the acquired reputation of a great man; as such he had to meet very wild expectations. Had his reputation been small, his political life been insignificant, in fact, had he been anybody else of his party but Leon Gambetta, he would have succeeded.

From the very onset Legitimists and Republicans, Clericals and Liberals shook hands to overthrow him; the very greatest of men could not resist such an opposition, unless he prepared the arguments of Buonaparte when he ejected the Cinq-Cents. Nobody better than Gambetta understood his critical situation: he saw he could not advance and he signed his own overthrow by bringing forth the revision of the Constitution. He met with the very greatest difficulties to form a Cabinet; he could rely on none to follow out his opinions, except his most intimate friends: the consequences were, that the new Cabinet was a mere personification of Gambetta. Public opinion viewed the new Cabinet in this light; the papers took the matter up, gave the alarm, and shaking the confidence of Gambetta's own supporters, the men who yesterday only pointed him to the crowd as the coming man, turned against him, and in the Chambers only a small nucleus of his republican followers supported him. Gambetta must abide his time; he is acknowledged to be the most talented man in France. But, as happens to all men of genius, or rather in this case of talents, Gambetta has been over-rated: too much individual importance has been attached to his political influence, and outside France his fall has been exaggerated from a stand-point of political importance. This failure will tell on him for a year or two, not longer: in the Assembly he will easily reassert the influence he has temporarily lost. Envy precipitated him as well as political hatred; in the eyes of the clericals he was an abomination; the Monarchists cannot forget 1870, whilst the Legitimists can never forget his scathing sarcasm. Louise Michel and Rochefort, what a duo, have raised the rabble against him, whilst amongst his friends many fell off to join the common outcry against the man of the day. M. Freycinet and Leon Say now go in: this means that the Republic goes back 6 months. The Conservatives come in and the beau ideal of advanced Republicanism, the Grande Assemblee, disappears for a time from the horizon.

ST. CLOUD.

However saintly St Cloud might have been, his canonization has not done as much to spread his reputation as the delightful Parisian suburb bearing his name; it recalls the sunny days of the French empire, the gloomy period of the siege when the Mont Valerien razed it with shot, and the atrocities of the subsequent Commune. The present site at the Retiro—Bieckert's brewery—lacks all historical precedent, and certainly does not remind one of the St Cloud palace now in ruins, commanding a beautiful panorama of Paris, in front of the Colonne de Juillet, where once the Bastille stood; from Bieckert's roof you only detect among the trees the battlements of the Penitentiary, and in the patios beneath empty beer-bottles; with a stretch of imagination you can see the fine Belgrano dome; in front lies the broad expanse of the Plate, a bright mirror of the sky Really the contrast between Bieckert's palace and the St Cloud palace is striking; but not so the gay crowd in the gardens beneath, so thoroughly French, just what one sees in a bazaar at the Capucines or in the Gardin des Plantes in Paris. The visitor hears the same humorous and silvery laugh, sees the neat and trim toilettes and feels that specially bewitching atmosphere that surrounds the French fair se in general. There is not a spot on this continent so thoroughly Parisian as Bieckert's during this annual feast of charity and of St Cloud.

On Sunday afternoon the gardens were opened to the public; at an early hour the precincts were thronged with a most democratical attendance, embracing the French population of all ages and of all walks in life. Several brass bands enlivened the scene, and the gardens looked most picturesque adorned with flags and flowers, stalls and out door amusements, with a crowd of beaming countenances, all looking happy and gay; but from one cause or another the feast was not as lively as last year; the visitors were not as numerous and one missed many familiar countenances. The flower-girls flitted about and sold medals and bouquets freely; the tickets of the great tombola were selling quickly in the hands of some of the most charming French ladies, whilst the business carried on at the stalls was simply astonishing.

At night the gardens were illuminated 'al giorno,' and we thought of the electric light as the wind extinguished many of the gas lamps. Compared with the night appearance of the gardens the scene of the afternoon looked prosy. A concert was going on and the most popular airs of the day were sung by Mmes. Carlany, Blanche Cavaelé, Hudson and Merle. The gathering at nine o'clock was very large and over 1,500 people must have been present; all the gentlemen wore two or more medals, and every thing augured a most successful day as regards the yield to the treasury.

One remarked with pleasure the appearance of two Italian clubs on the grounds: several German barraqueros bought freely on all sides in spite of the bad telegrams from Antwerp, and several English shipbrokers were seen staggering under the weight of medals and prizes won in the different contests of the day. Several well-known French ladies presided over the stalls, and at a late hour few objects were to be seen on the shelves: fortune seemed favorable to all, nobody lost, all won. A bottle of champagne could be won for 5 m|c, whilst Havannah cigars were sold by the hundred. Whoever goes to the Eliseo with money must make up his mind to drop it all, and even leave the gardens indebted to some kind friend for the tramway fare home. Let this not frighten people away, as there is no such thing as extortion; it is all the influence of the surroundings and of the charitable feeling one imbibes in so attractive an atmosphere.

NAHUEL-HUAPI.

The very name enchants us. It sounds like the tinkling of the silver bells on the ankles of the houris of Mahomet's paradise. What will be its pronunciation 50 years hence by the hundred thousand inhabitants of its fertile shores? A good deal will depend on their original nationality. The very pronunciation of the people of the north generally plays the very devil with the original liquid sounds of Indian names But whatever may be its future name, and we hope it may never be changed, Nahuel-Huapi is destined to be the centre of a great community. The climate will well suit the Angla-Saxon and German. The soil, by all accounts, will produce all the fruits of a temperate zone. Water power is abundant, and a short tunnel through the Andes will connect the future community with Valdivia, on the Pacific. Our children's children will see the walls and towers of a great town reflected in the clear waters of this wonderful lake, and yachtsmen dot its surface with white sails, and steamers plying between the hundred villages on its picturesque shores What a chance the Mormons are losing. Had they only known of the existence, out of sight of humanity, of such a spot, they would all have left Salt Lake by this time.

Seriously, we are inclined to believe that Nahuel-Huapi will, in a very few years, be one of the most flourishing sections of the Argentine Republic. Nestled under the shade of the gigantic Andes, the climate must be superior to that of Mendoza and San Juan, and the immense surface of the lake would go far towards equalising the temperature. We may make every allowance for exaggeration on the part of the last explorers, and as yet we really know very little of the region round the lake, but what information they give us, and which we may receive as truth, is of a nature to fill us with curiosity and interest. A huge fresh water lake, surrounded with fertile lands. What more is required to be assured that Nahuel-Huapi is a privileged spot of our big country.

Colonies on the Nahuel-Huapi will probably open up communication rather with Chile than with Argentine centres at first. The Chilian seaport Valdivia is close to hand, and the passes of the Andes at this point are more facile than farther north.

The Rio Negro will not be of much use to the settlers on the Big Lake.

To secure the trade of this future emporium of agriculture we must build a railroad from the Port of San Antonio, at the head of San Matias Bay. In a direct line San Antonio is about 350 miles from the enchanted lake, and in the absence of a railroad should San Antonio prove an available port, the overland route with waggons would offer no difficulties.

We think that the Government might be doing an important service, that very shortly would be appreciated, if they would send down one of their vessels to make a thorough examination of the Bay of San Matias and the Port of San Antonio, for this will be the future starting point for Nahuel-Huapi.

THE SPECULATION IN WHEAT

During the whole of the year 1881 the people had to pay an exorbitant price for the staff of life. We now know that we have been all along victims of the speculators and millers, who, under the pretence of a short crop, were enabled to mystify the public and to keep up famine prices until the very eve of the new harvest, when it became notorious that instead of a previous short crop, there existed a considerable surplus in the hands of the millers and speculators. A regular stampede was the consequence, and a quantity of the surplus was shipped to Brazil, no doubt at a heavy loss. The millers of the province of Santa Fe were the principal losers, for nearly all of them were left with more or less heavy stock, and many had to sacrifice the whole profits of the year. There still remains a considerable amount of last year's stock of flour, and of course the holders' interest is to corner the market, and they have succeded in doing it; and the community are still paying an enormous price for bread; a price that actually places it out of the reach of the poorer classes.

The Standard was the only paper that set the truth before the people last year, insisting that the stock in the country was superabundant for the consumption. The facts verified our convictions, and just before the harvest the excessive prices tumbled down to a rational level, and the public at last entertained hopes that bread might be given to the children in full ration. The public is again disappointed. By hook or by crook the prices of wheat has been raised to the highest quotations of last year, and the farmers are actually hoarding their grain in expectation of still higher prices.

This is a great misfortune for the country. We are playing fast and loose with an article that should at this moment be loading in our ports for Europe. We are receiving no benefit from it. Like National Bank Shares wheat is tossed about in a spirit of pure gambling. The people suffer, but as long as a culatorspe can make a margin he is all right, and in fact it is only in exaggerated prices that the speculator can make money. When an article stands at its intrinsic value in the market speculation can only exist in a legitimate form. The intrinsic value of wheat at this moment is not more than seven dollars and a half gold per Santa Fe fanega of 375 lbs. We arrive at this by calculating its shipping value to Europe, and the price we have quoted is the extreme limit that can be paid in accordance with present prices in Europe. Notwithstanding this, we observe that a sale of wheat has been made in Rosario at 16½ Bolivian dollars, which is about 11 dollars gold. This comes close on to two dollars gold the bushel, an exorbitant price, or rather a fancy speculative price.

Had we statistical departments in all the provinces, we should know exactly by this time what quantity the crop reaches. This would at once put a stop to gambling with the principal article of subsistence of the people. But, in our almost total ignorance of agricultural returns, the speculator has a free field to propagate all kinds of false information. From what we can learn we do not entertain any doubt of there being a considerable surplus of wheat in the country. One proof is the fact that a number of houses, relying on the information they had acquired, made preparations for an export business, which, of cosreu, is knocked on the head for the present.

THE RIO COLORADO.

Mr Freund, the government surveyor has shown us the maps of the rivers Colorado and of the Quequen Grande which he will exhibit at the forthcoming Exhibition. The Colorado is drawn on a large scale and covers a space of 10 square metres, although it only comprises the upper part of the river, dominated by the sierras Chogque Mahuida. All the bends of the river, with the fertile camps and the stretch of the mountainous ridge which runs along the river side and divides the good camps from the sandy and stony regions, have been shown with different colours and all necessary indications, to enable buyers and owners to judge for themselves of the quality of those regions. Such is the exactness of the plan, that even the willows on the small islands in the river have been shown, each in its own site. For intending buyers this map will be very valuable. Since a military force has been stationed lately on the banks of the river Colorado, the commanding officers of the frontier line will benefit vastly by the map of this unknown territory, being enabled by it to point out the exact points where they want to station their men, and where to let operations go on, far better than by merely describing the desired spot. As for us, we have been astonished to see what a small proportion of good fertile lands is to be found in such a vast region, but it is easily to be understood, seeing that not a single lake, either of fresh or of salt water, has been met with.

The 4 maps of the Quequen Grande have been drawn up by Mr Freund, in order to take out the concession for a water mill on its banks near the new town of Necochea. This is the third concession for building watermills in this province which Mr Freund receives from Government. His first concession was for building a watermill at Olavarria. It dates from last year, month of March, but before works were commenced, some other party stepped in and, appropriating the site of Mr Freund's concession, built the mill, without permission from Government or the slightest right to do so. Of course, this irregular proceeding was referred to Government, and the case being submitted to the fiscal assesor, he ordered the works to be stopped and the mill to be pulled down. This judgment of their legal adviser has lately been communicated by Government to the Municipality of Olavarria, and so it will soon be seen what will be the end of this most unfortunate affair.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent)

Jan. 27th.

The row in the teapot has culminated in the Standard translating and publishing Mr Pizarro's chaste letters. How evident it is you are an Irishman, Mr Standard. You have the national instinctive love for a fight. You have translated the letters 'con amore'; in fact I congratulate you on making them more readable in English than in their original Spanish, which I cannot say enchanted me. But I do not admire your being so down on Mr Sarmiento. His age, his talents, his patriotism and his indomitable moral courage deserve the respect of every foreigner. Dont let your characteristic love for a free fight lead you to be unjust to the old gentleman. Then again your favorite bruiser, when it came to the pinch hardly realized Irish pluck. A countryman of yours, after using hard words to gentlemen, is always ready for pistols and coffee at six. So, Mr Standard, I am sorry to say I am not quite satisfied with you. Your bellicose propensities have led you to sympathise with the wrong man.

Had the duel come off, the Minister could not have failed potting his opponent, on the principle that any one can hit a barn door. It is true an Irishman invented an ingenious manner of equalizing the chances in similar cases. The breath of the spare man was to be marked off with chalk lines on the person of the stout man, and all hits outside the lines were not to count.

It never rains but it pours in this country. We have been up to the for how much longer it may last, drinkin unfiltered Parana water, and a large number of people, well water, which contains, according to the modern school of Doctors-hydrogen and oxygen mixed with typus fever. Messrs Saenz Peña and Bengolea at last came forward with a proposition for water works No sooner was their scheme a little advanced than a Mr. Bordes, from your city, presented another, and then Dr. MacInnes, as agent for a thundering big Yankee firm, presents a third that threatens to take the wind out of the sails of the other fellows. It is stated, although I do not believe it, that the Amcerian company offers to supply, through one set of pipes for half an hour every day of the year, brandy and soda deliciously iced. Should this be a fact this is the company that shall have my strenuous support, and I shall ask the Standard to assist in the good work.

As your Tuesday number does not mention any strong storm on Saturday night, we know that the fearful hurricane that visited this region must have been limited in its breadth; probably a dozen miles on either side of Rosario. In town it wrecked a mill and maccaroni manufactory, knocked down the Grand Stand on the Race course, and blew to smithereens a number of ranchos. Windows were smashed in abundance, and the solid walls of the houses were swayed in such a manner as to loosen the azotea roofs, and almost every roof in town now leaks. Mr Thomas' mansion at Carcaraña suffered considerable damage, and his quinta also suffered. A coasting vessel from Buenos Aires to Santa Fe, loaded with machinery and lumber, was turnd wrong side up, the captain and one sailor being drowned. The lumber in the hold kept the keel above water, and the craft will probably be saved. The port of Rosario is so secure that no damage was done amongst the shipping. On Tuesday night we had another fearful storm and the rain fell in torrents; thunder and lightning were incessant for five or six hours. The preceding day was the hottest we have yet experienced.

A large alligator is paying a visit to our port; it has been seen by several persons, and made a dash at a boy who was bathing, who scrambled ashore and ran home without clothes, he was so scared. It is not often that the Rosario port is honored by such a distinguished guest. They are plentiful enough, however, in the lagoons of the San Javier, above and around Santa Fe. It is not generally known that the males of the species in our rivers possess a pellet of exquisite musk of the size of an almond. I have been in possession of one, taken from a grim old fellow I shot on one occasion, for many years, and the perfume is as strong as ever. The alligators or 'yacares,' the Guarani name for them, sometimes attain the length of nine feet, but their usual dimensions here are from five to six feet, and their disposition is by means gentle.

The works on the Tucuman and Salta extension appear to be not altogether in apple-pie order if we may place any faith in the denunciations of the Tucuman papers. The Debates says there is nothing but wasteful extravagance, no order, and every thing left to Providence. On the section No 1 instead of 800 peons there are now only 80, but nearly all of the 'capataces' of the 800 have remained, so that there is an employee for every 5 peones. The above paper states that bricks that should cost only thirty dollars the thousand, will cost the Government seventy, and asks what will be the probable ultimate cost of the line to the nation.

HOP BITTERS
ARE
THE PUREST AND BEST
MEDICINE EVER MADE.
THEY ARE COMPOUNDED FROM
Hops, Buchu, Mandrake and Dandelion.

"The Oldest, Best, most Renowned, and Valuable Medicines in the World, and in addition contain all the best and most effective curative properties of all other bitters, being the greatest Liver Regulator, BLOOD PURIFIER and life and health restoring agent on earth."

They Give New Life and Vigor to the Aged and Infirm.

"To Clergymen, Lawyers, Literary Men, Ladies, and all those whose sedentary employments cause irregularities of the Blood, Stomach, Bowels, or Kidneys, or who require an Appetizer, Tonic, and mild Stimulant, these Bitters are invaluable, being highly curative, tonic, and stimulating, without being intoxicating."

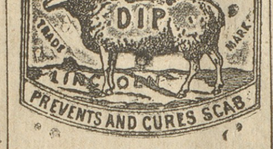

"No matter what your feelings or symptoms are, or what the disease or ailment is, use Hop Bitters. Don't wait until you are sick, but if you only feel bad or miserable, use the Bitters at once. It may save your life. Hundreds have been saved by so doing at a trifling cost."

Ask your Druggist or Physician.

"Do not suffer yourself or let your friends suffer, but use and urge them to use Hop Bitters."

"Remember, Hop Bitters is no vile, drugged drunken nostrum, but the purest and best Medicine ever made, and no person or family should be without it."

GILLARD'S SHEEP DIP

This Dip is most carefully prepared by the latest improved methods and can be used with COLD WATER
Supplied to the Prince of Wales's Farm at SANDRINGHAM
TESTIMONIALS.

From Mr. John J. Mahon, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.

From Mr. James M. Thomas, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.

From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept, 20, 1881—

"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock.'

From Messrs. Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—

"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fullly determined for the future to use no other remedy."

LATEST NEWS.
PRESS TELEGRAMS

The following epitome of the latest news by telegraph, from all quarters, is taken from our colleagues—

Montevideo 2nd.

Minho, of Royal Mail, brings European dates to January 10th.

General Balmaceda died of apoplexy.

Madrid official organ denies that the Spanish Government has received any letter from Bismarck about Papal Question.

The Times says that the Porte must act in Egypt solely under the orders of England and France, as any other line of conduct will bring serious consequences. The same paper scouts the pretensions of the United States in reference to the Panama Canal.

Marquis of Cabra died in Madrid.

Bishop of Nice died at 90: very poor; interred at public cost.

Official Berlin organ publishes note from Emperor to Bismarck saying that the Constitution has limited but not suppressed the right of the King of Prussia to direct his policy. The object of the note is to stop all discussion as to the King and his successors having a right to manage Prussian policy as they please.

The elections in Paris on the 8th for Seine Department resulted in return of Victor Hugo, Peyrat, Tolain, and Freycinet, the latter being elected in four places. Leon Say was elected for Versailles.

Intransigents made a demonstration at Blanqui's funeral: 23 arrested, Louise Michel amongst them.

Paris papers consider the elections favourable to Moderate party.

Spanish Government has asked the Pope to prohibit Carlist pilgrimage, as it looks like a political demonstration, 10,000 people having joined it. His Holiness has advised the Carlists to stay at home.

The Austrians are concentrating troops in Dalmatia to put down the insurrection. Already they have 35,000 men there.

The fire on board the Delambre broke out when she was 100 miles south of Cape Frio. She was run on shore on Santa Barbara Island, and the pumps of the Arsenal kept at work on her till 7th, when the fire was extinguished, and 12 feet of water were found in the hold; the silver in the cargo was saved; 400 bales wool damaged.

Brazilian Government has granted 120,000 patacons to assist Brazilian exhibitors at the Buenos Aires Exhibition.

Gualeguaychu 2d.

Things here much the same as yesterday. The prisoners arrested by Governor Antelo's order are still in jail, and the old farce of a 'fumario' about an intended rising of Jordanites is being played. Great agitation prevails.

Cordoba 2d.

Dr. Juan J. Garcia represents this province in the suit broughs by Ataliva Roca and B. Hueyo about Public Lands.

Gualeguaychu, Jan. 31st.

Racedista revolution has broken out in Gualeguaychu. Bands of armed men roaming about departments, but Gefe Politico came up with them and took the arms from them.

Parana, Feb. 1st.

Eighty men armed with Remingtons, quartered in Moran's house in Gualeguaychu, have revolted against the authorities, but the latter showed a bold front and at once clapped poor Moran, Laurencena and other petty leaders into prison. At Duportal's estancia there were 70 rebels encamped, but they stampeded on Colonel Arias's approach, leaving 50 lances, six rifles and some prisoners in his hands. Arias is now in pursuit of Vincent Moran and Peter M'Dougall, who have also men in the field. More arms have arrived from Santa Fe in the steamer Aguila. Racedo looking for official support and more arms. The object is to get up a row for the 3d instant and prevent the election coming off, as he is certain to be ignominiously beaten. Every day fresh bands of adventurers arrive from Santa Fe, and the Racedo men are evidently contemplating a 'coup de main.'

Montevideo 3d.

Nothing new in politics.

Bloody affair at the Cordon last night. Miss Revello and her brother, aged 21, were at their hall door when a drunken Neapolitan passing by stopped and kissed the girl. The brother ran in, got a dagger, and plunged it into the Italian's heart. The man died in two hours and Revello fled.

Dr. Avelleneda will leave for B. Aires on next Wednesday.

New Chambers summoned for 15th, when Vidal will resign and Santos be elected.

Patagones 2d.

Captain Moyano has arrived, after a run down of 65 hours.

Gualeguay 2d.

Suspect Law in force here. Dr Laurencena, President of Constitutional Committee, and 100 others found in Mr Moran's house are in prison. It is not true that they resisted.

REVIEW FOR EUROPE.

The fortnight has been eventful in many respects, showing the changed political status of the country and its daily progress. A split has been nearly occasioned between the National and Provincial parties in power, owing to the many delays in the final settlement of an all important question, the new capital of Buenos Aires. The National party dislike the protracted stay of the Provincial Government of Buenos Aires, within the city of Buenos Aires at present entirely under National jurisdiction: A cabinet Minister attacked the provincial party in the papers of this city, and the question became one of the utmost importance when the conference between the President of the Republic and the Governor of the Province, and the resignation of the Minister of Worship and Instruction, settled the question at issue. This family quarrel has done much good, and it is probable that the new Provincial Capital will be fixed before the end of next month. Politics are otherwise dormant, and the horizon is clear.

On the West Coast matters are in a 'statu quo,' and it would appear that the policy of Chile is to keep Tarapaca and the whole coast of the belligerents as long as possible. The Chilian Treasury reaps immense benefits from the occupation, and the returns of the Peruvian Custom House promise to repay them amply for all expenses of the war. It is estimated that the revenue of the Chilian Government for the current year will be much over 50,000,000 $fts.: these calculations shew that Peru is yet very rich and that with a good Government that country might rely on superabundant resources to pay off all the obligations of loans and contributions. Peace arrangements seem to be as distant as ever, and Chile consults her interests by keeping all final settlements in the back-ground. This state of affairs may continue for years, as no Peruvian Government will sign a treaty wherein territory is ceded to the conqueror. In Peru civil war is raging and a frightful massacre took place at Pisco; the city was plundered and burnt; the inhabitants outraged and murdered. Bolivia is quiet and peace negotiations have been broached with Chile.

The Uruguay prospers, in a nominal sense; everything looks quiet at the surface, but discordant elements are lighting beneath. Montevideo has become the Trouville of the Plate; thousands upon thousands of fashionable bathers are daily seen on the beach, and Argentines are most numerous. The city profits by this fashionable invasion, all the houses are occupied and the hotels are full. The health of the city for the moment is nevertheless not very good, and everybody in the place is being vaccinated, owing to a universal dread of small-pox. The Vidal Government is still in power and the candidate for the Presidency is the well-known caudillo General Maximo Santos; the antecedents of the candidate are not very favorable, but his prospects are bright, and we do not see why he should not be as good a president as any of his predecessors; he has a strong official and military party in his favors. His great opponent, ex-dictator Latorre, is in Buenos Aires.

The Government of Buenos Aires has held two land auctions during the fortnight. The lands in Bahia Blanca and in Gainza have fetched extraordinarily high prices, and the buyers are mostly Italians and Basques. The speculation in lands is heavy, and many fear that it will bring on a fall in the value of lands. Good lands are always good purchases, as long as they are 'bona fide' sales made on capital that is not lent. The estancias and sheeps farms of the province are stretching in all directions, and the increase of cattle is stated to be extraordinary; the animals, nevertheless, are not fat and the saladero faena for the present is not very active. The Entre Rios saladeristas are working little, but at the end or this month we may expect great activity in the faena both here and up the rivers. There is not much doing in hides of this province, and sales are more numerous in the Uruguay and Entre Rios.

The unfavorable advices from Europe have somewhat checked the late activity in wools. In the plazas there has been little business and sheepfarmers are sending in very small quantities. The export of the staple has been very active and all the steamers in port leave with full cargoes at firm freight rates. The result of the Antwerp wool auction decides the future of the wool market.

In cereals we notice several shipment of flax; this cereal has not answered expectations: the quality is not first class and the yield fell short from what was anticipated; heavy rains have also much injured the condition of the seed. There is little doing in wheat, as holders keep back and try hard to drive up prices on the pretext that the harvest is a poor one and will not suffice for home consumption. We know on good authority that the crop this year is very abundant and that there is wheat enough for export. The stock even from last year is large also.

The country is advancing in all directions: the Tucuman and Andine Railways are progressing; the Bahia Blanca and Clarke concessions will soon be carried out; estancieros, sheepfarmers, stock, and productions are increasing, and the value of property is rising daily. The Government is able and consults the wants of the country; the army is on the Rio Negro, and the management of affairs in general reflects the very able policy of General Roca. The premium on gold has risen slightly on the strength of bad news from Europe, but the Provincial Bank and Custom House acceptance of notes at their written value stems all farther rise. The receipts of the Custom House are very large, but imports in general dull, and the market is becoming overstocked. In another column our readers will find all the commercial news. The rates of exchange are as follows:—

THE NATIONAL MONETARY TYPE.

The governmont appears to be so much in love with its newly invented Monetary Type that it is burning with impatience to see it figure in the national account books.

The Decree, which the public is already acquainted with, ordains that from the 1st of February of the present year, whatever may be the legal money paid into the Treasury Departments, there must be an extra column for the reduction of the money to the future National Type. We confess we cannot perceive any special advantage in creating a large amount of extra labour, and adding another type, before its time, to the half dozen or dozen we actually possess. The last monetary law passed and sanctioned by a Congress that we can hardly be offensive when we say that not one single member had made himself thoroughly au fait with the subject, was a compromise, and we are inclined to believe a very imprudent compromise, between conflicting opinions, none of which were the offspring of a knowledge of the subject, or the experience of other countries. What the object of creating a new type was, we supposed, to assimilate our coinage with that of France. But what advantage is there in that? We can understand that in Europe it is convenient that the twenty franc piece should possess the same value in France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland and Spain. And yet, strange as it may appear to our legislators the English sovereign is a very favorit coin in all those countries; we believe it is preferred in all the hotels of Europe to any other. So much for unity of a monetary type. Was it considered so absolutly necessary in this country to seek a new type in Europe, when we might have found in the greatest of American nations a standard that would have suited us much better? Had we given the 'Argentino' the value of the N. American half Eagle, and have made our silver dollar an equivalent to our present imaginary patacon, we really cannot conceive any possible prejudice to the interests of the country arising from that arrangement; while on the other hand our gold coinage would have been assimilated to that of not only the greatest of American Republics, which we ought to emulate in almost everything, but to the nation that promises to be the greatest in the world. We should have avoided the obligation of supporting a gratuitous dislocation of our whole monetary system. The standard of the present patacon is thoroughly understood throughout the Republic. The emission of the two great banks of the country is based on it, as well as the operations of foreign merchant houses and Exchanges. The value of foreign gold, which it would be foolish to try to banish from the country is fixed by it at an intrinsic, not an imaginary value. And what are the advantages gained by the establishment of a new and arbitrary standard or type? We confess our inability to see any. If there be any great international advantages in the assimilation of gold coinage, it would seem natural and prudent for all the states of the American continent to adopt the standard of the United States, the greatest of all those states; not a nominal assimilation in nomenclature, but in weight fineness and value as well as in name; thus our 'Argentino' should be of the same value as the American Half-Eagle, divided into dollars each of the value of our present patacon, which would assimilate to the silver of the second great American state, Brazil.

We may safely leave the Silver question to time Gold must become the standard in all countries sooner or later, and silver a mere merchandize; but for purposes of commerce it will make little difference if, in time, our silver patacon should be only worth ninety cents instead of a hundred in relation to the permanent value of a gold dollar.

THE STORM IN MONTEVIDEO.

The storm on Tuesday and Wednesday was tremendous. The north and south of the city were inundated, and for a time there was some alarm, as the oldest resident does not remember such a "temporal."

The wind banked up the river and the waters rose very rapidly. The Maua dock was fairly swamped, but it has not been at all injured and was emptied on Thursday. Several barracas were inundated and many hundreds of bales of wool and other produce seriously damaged. Amongst the sufferers are Vignole, Caprario, Portillo, Risso and others.

The waves played astounding havoc amongst the bathing boxes on Playa Ramirez; they were swept and tossed in all directions and smashed to bits. The Gounilhou baths suffered severely; in fact they say that the different bath proprietors have lost at least 10,000 National dollars by the hurricane. At the Cerro the new Mole and its fine steam crane are things of the past: both gone, and the loss cannot be less than four or five thousand dollars.

The waves dashed up as far as Calle Orillas, and on Wednesday morning the best means of locomotion in that street was a boat. The barracas in this quarter were flooded, and heavy losses sustained. The little 'plaza' at the junction of Calles Cerro, Maldonado and Ciudadela was also converted into a lake. The houses in the neighbourhood were likewise flooded, and the furniture floated about. Meantime the storm Fiend played as much mischief as the water; rancho roofs, sign—boards, weakly walls and fences were razed and swept away in all directions. At the north side of town Calles Teresa, Maciel and others were invaded by the flood, and considerable damage and inconvenience caused.

The tramways had their share of it. The traffic was kept up with great difficulty, and in some cases had to be stopped for a time.

The port presented an alarming scene, the large and small craft being tossed about like feathers, and the anxious thousands watching from shore soon saw that casualties were inevitable. Many of the larger vessels dragged their anchors. The first to go on shore was the fine American barque Frank Marion, which was driven on the north coast. Then the British brigantine 'Native Pearls' went smash on the Cerro shore; she was loaded with salt, and vessel and cargo are a total loss. The crew got on shore. A whale-boat loaden with provisions for Flores Island foundered off the Buceo, but the crew were rescued.

The Maua Dock suffered little in itself, but the Spanish gunboat Consuelo, which was in it for repairs, had anything but a 'consoling' time of it. She turned right over, and her machinery and fittings were much knocked about. On Thursday, when the Dock was emptied the vessel was found to be half full of sand and debris, and the cost of repairing her will be greatly increased. Fortunately, the crew, at the first sign of danger, abandoned the vessel and were all saved.

For many years such a severe storm has not been experienced in Montevideo.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The Royal Mail steamer Guadiana will sail to-morrow, when the mails will close at noon. Our Packet Edition is included in this issue.

We have to thank Captain Scott, of the Phœnician and his courteous purser for the biggest batch of home papers we have ever received from sympathising subscribers. They are from all quarters — London, Dublin, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Aberdeen, Clare, Galway, Havre, etc, etc. We expect to get through them during Carnival, and meanwhile return our best thanks for such thoughtful courtesy.

The country is slowly but surely veering back to its old electioneering 'amours,' to which the rumpus over the last Presidential election was but a temporary stop. That uneasy province, Entre Rios, is now in the thick of it, and the usual inclination to appeal to the bullet instead of the ballot is manifested. See telegram in another column. Let not our foreign readers imagine, however, that this electioneering fizzle in Entre Rios can affect in any way the onward march of the nation. It cannot. It is simply a little of the old Adam coming to the surface. We are sorry to see an Irishman, Mr. Moran, mixed up in this political row. Irishmen should stick to their sheep and cattle.

No man in Rosario, no matter what his talents, can keep the run of all the railway stuff that is now being landed for the Government Railways. If the country is getting into debt abroad, at least it can show something for it; they are landing up there now from London 2493 rails weighing 538,516 kilos, 5220 'eclisas' (no man in Rosario knows what the name is in English) 11,500 'tornillos,' 23,400 'clavos ganchos.' Mr Ramirez, the Government engineer, is with his hat and coat off all day; he has just received from the steamer Sully 12,000 'clavos,' 1833 rails, 64,000 screws and all the material for the iron bridge over that deep and rapid stream, Chorrillos. Talk of the hard work of receiving wool in the Plaza Once, the receiving business going on in Rosario beats the Plaza Once in its palmiest days, but then, as our correspondent says, 'we have no Irish wool brokers up in Rosario, and we want them badly up here, to help their countrymen along.' It is pleasant to get such good news from Rosario, and pleasanter still it would be if the great wheat deposits were full. Santa Fe for ever! There is no province in the Republic going ahead as fast; she beats them all hollow in the way of new colonies, emigrants, ploughs, Wood's machines, etc. Here we have a letter from Italy, date Nice: Not a word in it about Italian politics, but all about Dr. D. Lucas Gonsalez, who has established himself there as Messrs Murrietta & Co's agents and is preparing to send out the whole Nicene population to Santa Fe. The Nicene creed of the day is the Gran Chaco. Maps and plans of all those splendid lands, bought by Murrietta of the Santa Fecino Government, are to be had at every 'pulperia' on the Italian highways. We congratulate Santa Fe on its chosen good luck. The Italians in the Chaco mean everything that is good for this country, and with the Murrietta people at its back, the Chaco is destined to be the granary of South America.

The Swiss Shooting Club sent round a neatly printed notice to the effect that their Fete will commence to-day instead of to-morrow, and will last till Tuesday next. We wish it every success. The fine weather for the past few days has restored the ground to its usual good condition.

There was a meeting of the Exhibition Commissioners yesterday to promote a 'concurso literario' during the Show. The literary oar must be shoved into everything in this fine country; there seems to be no escape from it, so we trust the proposed 'concurso' will prove the most brilliant success, and that Brander will keep away.

We should like to know what would become of this mundane sphere if there were no Borthwick's Baking Powder to be had?

Song—'If Doughty Deeds.'

If doughty deeds my husband please,
I'll Borthwick's Powder take,
And with rapidity and ease,
The staff of life I'll bake.

We were favored yesterday with a nice present, an Alsina Cake, to be had at the Confiteria Victoria. It is a most delicious compound, made specially for travelling, and a little of it goes a far way. Our old friend, M. Brasseur, formerly proprietor of the Hotel de France, Parana, was until recently the only person in the country who knew how to make this famous cake, but when in town lately he imparted his secret to Madame Larcade. The Alsina Cake is like sponge cake in taste and appearance.

We have to thank the American Bank Note Company of Broadway New York, for a monster registered envelope full of their beautifully engraved almanacks for this year. The Company has sent us such a lot that we can share with any subscribers who wish to have one of these beautiful almanacks.

The Colon Theatre programme for the Exhibition went round yesterday. Our old friend Mr. Nick Bassi will wield the baton, as usual. An 'abono' of 15 performances will be opened, at the same prices as last year. The operas to be given are Guarani, Huguenots, l'Africaine, Poliuto, Robert the Devil, and some others. The artists are Borghi-Mamo, la Bordato, Tamagno, Batistini, Castelmary etc. etc.

Cable news from London yesterday was better, and fresh orders to buy produce were wired, which put the Plazas men into somewhat better spirits.

The storm at Montevideo on Tuesday was, as our friend Standby Ogorman wired, the most tremendous 'sneezer' they have had down there for a good long time. We give some particulars in another column.

There was a rumour going yesterday as to some political trouble brewing in Paraguay, but little credence was given to it.

Yesterday was the 30th anniversary of the fall of Rosas, and consequently was a kind of demi-semi-holiday in Provincial circles.

We feel great pleasure in saluting our esteemed contemporary the Southern Cross, on its seventh anniversary, and sincerely wish it a long continuance of prosperity and usefulness.

Number 6399 won the 15,000 pats prize in the San Luis Lottery on Thursday. The luck attached to 9 does not seem to have departed with 'the year of nines'—1881.

The Saint Cloud Fete was again crowded on Thursday, and a deal of money changed purses. The French beat us all in these things.

Our esteemed colleague L'Union Francaise gives a bad bit of news, viz, that the French manufacturers have changed their minds and wont send any machinery to the Buenos Aires Exhibition. 'Tant pis pour eux.'

The diligence fare between Ensenada and Magdalena has fallen from $200 m|c to TEN, owing to a second line of coaches being established.

An Englishman named O'Gorman (no relation of Stand-by's) was saved from certain death at the Once Station on Thursday by the policeman on duty, who pulled him from under the wheels, at the risk of his life. Mr O'G. had tried to jump into the train while it was moving and fell under it.

A biscuit-maker named Prado, living in Calle Piedad, let himself down the 'algibe' of his house on Wednesday last and there blew his brains out. The corpse was found by a peon who pulled up a bucket of water, 'tinged with red.' The suicide's business was very prosperous, and no one can imagine why he killed himself.

The masquerade balls gave rise to the usual disorder on Thursday night. At the Opera there was a free shindy. Her name is of no consequence, besides, we dont know it.

The Vice-President of the Republic, Sr F Madero, is taking the baths at Montevideo.

Mademoiselle Borghi-Mamo, the prima donna, was at Ramos Mejia on Thursday and visited many of the distinguished residents there, amongst them President and Mrs Roca.

There was a terrific Telephone smash at the corner of Maipu and Cangallo yesterday, when the big menagerie cage that holds the wires gave way, and everything came smack into the street. For two hours no tram cars or other vehicles could pass. Fortunately there were no skulls or hats smashed

The Boca and Barracas had all the 'agua' to themselves on Tuesday. The Tigre San Fernando and Las Conchas were flooded, and almost down to Belgrano the overflow was felt. Yesterday morning the mud was still there but the waters were gone.

Bieckhert's Beer Grotto in the Exhibition has cost $150,000 m|c. It will take a prodigious number of 'choppes' and 'bocks' to pay this, but we venture to say that MrB. will make money on the 'spec.'

There is a most determined spirit of opposition in the camp to the new Marking Law. Although it is now a month in force, the 'renovacion' goes on so slowly that only 200,000$ m|c. have as yet accrued to the Treasury. This is just what might have been expected.

Mr Freycinet gave an exposit of his political programme in both Chambers yesterday, which can be resumed as follows:—

To do everything in his power to conserve peace, interior and exterior.

Continue the great public works commenced, the termination of which will unfold new sources for commerce and industry of the country.

Diminish the military service as much as possible for the security of the nation, and being completely independent of politics, trying on every occasion to obtain what most favors the interests of the Republic.

Without declaring himself hostile to the revision of the Constitution, M. Freycinet believes that the proper moment has not arrived to verify it, and consequently proposes that the revision may be postponed to future time.

The market opened this morning under the influence of news of a conflicting nature. The pagare telegram of yesterday announced that there were great probabilities of the Bank rate being further raised. The Directors of the Bank of England met yesterday, but the rate was not raised, and telegrams received this morning announce an improvement in the market; the drain of gold was tremendous and as follows:—

30th Jan. ...... £1,000,000 stg.
31st Jan. ...... £1,000,000 stg.
1st Feb. ...... £ 350,000 stg.

Thus the drain of specie amounted to 2,350,000 £ stg., where it stopped. In Paris several banking firms have smashed, but the heavy firms held good. The improvement in the situation announced in our telegram is naturally one of a relative character, and comparative with the crisis of the previous days. The situation, otherwise, must continue very critical in Paris, where the failures are very numerous and little confidence is left in the market. How far this market may be affected remains to be seen; it is known that the banking firms that have failed have no direct relations with this country, but as the crisis may be prolonged, it will be felt undoubtedly. On the heels of the improved situation in the London market comes the news that all Argentine stocks have fallen in the Stock Exchange, and orders have come out here to place on this market 100,000 Hard Dollar Bonds at 83 for end of March. The gold market this morning was very quiet and few operations were effected; rates for cash opened at 25.10, fell to 25.07½, and closed at 25.05. Rates for long dates, end of April, shew a rise and some 50,000 pats were sold for the latter date at 25.50. The total business of the day, as marked on the black board, only amounted to 167,000 pats, but then some important transactions were effected outside the ring privately.

All stocks look weak; Cedulas of Series A. are unsteady and very little doing; several thousand were sold to-day at 99½, Series E, is firmer and some sales effected at 86.

The National Bank Share market was exceedingly weak this morning, and it is long since the market looked so bearish. The bulls lost heart at the beginning, but managed to raise the market at the close of the official hours. The bears brought to the front a battery of revolutionary news from Entre Rios, tight money market, commercial crisis in Europe and bad Antwerp telegrams, with further reduction of limit that shook the firmness of the stock. Rates for cash opened at 127, tumbled to 126, touched bottom at 125½ and closed buoyant at 126½. More than 6,000 shares were sold for the end of the month; prices opened at 128, and fell gradually to 126¾; the market closed at this rate for the end of the month. The stock is weak owing to the attack in the newspapers with regard to the report of the Directors, and an uneasy feeling in the future of the market in general.

In stocks there is nothing doing.

The sales at the ring were—

Gold—
For cash 20,700 at 25.10-05
For Feb. 15th 57,000 25.15
For Feb. 28th 40,000 25.25
For April 30th 50,000 25.50
Sales, 167,700.

Cedulas—
For cash A 46,500 99¾-½
For cash E 8,500 at 86
Sales, 55,000.

Nat. Bank Shares—
For cash 530 shares 127-126½-126-125½-½ to 126½
For Feb. 28th 6,050 shares 128-127½-¼ to 127-126¾-¾
Sales, 6,630.

An evening colleague has begun a crusade against the National Bank and more especially against the late report published by the Directors. The Republica very simply contradicts all the statements made and refutes the figures, under the plea that they are false. This seems quite enough to be able to judge of the sound basis of the attacks on the Bank Others have maliciously insinuated that the profits comprise the 450,000 $f. of the National Government, which is quite false, as the Minister of Finance has not promulgated the law. The report of the Bank is a plain and common sense document; the figures eloquently shew the splendid condition of the establishment and its brilliant prospects. The Bank reflects the Republic, if the Interior thrives, if its productions increase, and its railways be pushed ahead, the returns of the Bank grow in proportion. Since the present Nat. Government was installed the trade of the Interior has nearly doubled; wine and sugar, wheat and corn, algarobo and quebracho have came down to Buenos Aires in double the former quantities. Every day machinary goes up in the railways for Tucumann, Santiago del Estero and Cordova; to shake the prospects of the Bank the attacks on same must stem the progress of the Interior.

From 1st inst. the National Bank in Rosario pays gold for its notes with the branch stamp, and the 75 cents notes in silver.

The fine R.M.S. Guadiana leaves to-morrow for Europe direct, without touching at Brazil. She takes amongst her passengers:—

Mr and Mrs Smithers
Mr and Mrs Dugoux
Mrs Bordman
Miss Renney
Mr Graham Barber

Her cargo from this port comprises—
2,121 bales
8,000 salted hides
50 packages herbs

Fifty 3rd-class passengers leave in her.

The Provincial Bank discounted to-day:—
$2,000,000 m/c.
$f.20,000 gold

Applications at the Bank were few.

Government Proveeduria Bills were offered in the market to-day at 8 o/o discount, but none accepted. Paper money is getting scarce and discounts difficult. Discounts were done to-day in paper at 8 o/o, and in gold at 7 o/o per annum.

Some 9,000 ar. wool arrived in the Once, and close on 20,000 ar. were sold. The telegrams from Antwerp shew that the R. Plate wools averaged from 4.90 to 5.15 francs. The sales in the Once are more animated, and the 'artistas' are preparing to buy.

1,000 breeding cows have been sold at $300.

Messrs Johnson Gaibisso & Co have chartered the following vessels:—

"Norwegian barque Elisa to load hides in Gualeguaychu for Channel and orders at 32s. 6d and 5 o/o.

"Italian barque Guiseppina Oneto to load hides and bales for Antwerp: rates reserved.

"German barque Jupiter to load hides and bales for Antwerp; rates reserved.

"At afterhours some operations in gold were effected for to-morrow at 25.05, and for end of month at 25.20. In National Bank shares some 400 were sold at 127; the stock stiffened somewhat and closed firm at this rate for end of the month; nothing done cash.

The market will be well pleased to hear that Sr Don Emilio Fernandez has been named President of the Camara Sindical. His nomination meets with universal applause on the Bolsa, and we welcome him back with pleasure to his old post. Mr J. L. Gandara has been named Treasurer.

Exchange is purely nominal: the rates are as follows:—

On London 49⅞
France 5.27
Antwerp 5.28
Germany 4.28

Mr E. L. Green has chartered the Olivaro Pietro to load bales for Antwerp at 16s in full.

Messrs. Bollini & Muro have sold the following properties:—

Calle Santa Fe 553—60 for 124,000 $. Mr Beautie, buyer.

Venezuela 1128 for 70,000$. Mr Poquintesta, buyer.

Property in San Fernando, for 200,000 $. Mr Leon Alvear, buyer.

The Ptolemy arrived to-day: she leaves on the 7th a full ship.

The Rosse left New York on the 7th Jan., arrived in Bahia on the 23rd, and in Rio on the 27th; a very quick passage—20 days.

Mr W Davison, was welcomed on 'Change on his return from Montevideo; he states that the 100 rooms of the Hotel Oriental are occupied by Argentines; in some rooms there are 5 beds.

The Sales at afterhours were—

We clip from the following the London Daily News:—

"The Royal Mail Company's steamer Moselle, which arrived at Plymouth on Saturday with a fortnightly homeward West India and Pacific mail, came into collision on Dec. 23rd with the Italian barque Veneranda, 441 tons, of Castellamare di Stabia, Captain Cappiello, in 84, 19 deg. N., 45, 10 deg. W. The barque was from Baltimore, for Cardiff, with wheat. She was under all plain sail, with a light breeze, close-hauled, standing to the northward on the starboard tack. The Moselle stopped her engines, shifting her helm, and went astern as she closed on the barque, but struck her on her port quarter. The Moselle hove to and sent a boat to ascertain the damage. After remaining alongside two hours, and as the barque was sinking rapidly, it was resolved to abandon her. Her captain and crew, thirteen in all, were taken on board the Moselle. The crew of the barque say they had their lights burning. On board the Moselle it was asserted that no lights were seen, hence the barque was not observed until too late, the night being dark.

"Large premiums were paid at Lloyd's to-day upon overdue vessels, viz.:—85 guineas upon the Lightning, from New York; 70 guineas on the Norwegian, from New York for London with cargo of petroleum; 50 guineas on the Constantine, from New York for London with petroleum; 40 guineas on the Norfolk, from Reval for Rouen. The Henry Edye, from Antwerp for Boston, and the City of London, from London for New York, are given up as lost.

Telegrams from Rio announce a further fall in Exchange on London.

The Consuelo, Spanish man-of-war, was abandoned by her crew and officers during the storm in Montevideo; she is under water in the Maua dock, and cannot be saved without much difficulty.

The English barque, Native Pearl was next abandoned by the crew during the gale, and went to pieces on the shore; she had a cargo of Cadiz salt.

The Montevidean barracas that have most suffered bp the high waters during the storm are:—

Messrs Caprario & Co.
Vignale y Risso.
Girlero y Cia.
Sienra y Cia.

Some 2,000 bales of wool, it is reported, have been wet.

We take the following from the Chilian Times to hand:—

"The Custom-House receipts in 1881, exclusive of nitrate duty, will probably reach 11,000,000 dollars, against about eight millions in 1880.

"Capt. Park of the Brit. barque, Esmeralda, arrived on the 7th instant from Liverpool, reports having spoken the following vessels:—On Dec. 26th and 27th was in company with the N.A. ship, J.I.H.F., from Philadelphia for Sitka, 71 days ont; all well. On Dec. 29th, in lat. 56° 40' S., and long. 73° W., spoke the Brit. ship, Bacchus, from San Francisco for Falmouth; 53 days out; all well.

"Captain Christensen of the German barque, Paposo, arrived on the 7th instant, from Newcastle, reports that on Dec. 16th, off Cape Horn, he spoke the German barque, Euterpe, from Newcastle for San Francisco, 89 days out; all well.

"The Captain of the Kosmos steamer, Menes, reports that on November 5th, in Lat. 24° 24' S., and long. 21° 28' W., he spoke the ship Q.D.C.S.

"H. M. gunboat Garnet arrived at Coquimbo from Tahiti on the 7th inst.

"The old Nereus, for a quarter of a century and more the store-ship at Valparaiso of the British navy, arrived here from Coquimbo on the 9th, in tow of the steamer Guayacan.

"H.M.S. Mutine was docked shortly after arriving at Callao.

"The U. S. corvette, Adams, left Callao for Mollendo with General Adams on board, on the 28th ult.

"It is expected that the receipts of the Iquique custom-house, in 1881, will reach 4,500,000 dollars.

"Captain Rae, British bark, Scottish Fairy, arrived on the 9th from Liverpool, reports having spoken the following vessels:—On Nov 28th, off Diego Ramirez, the British ship Bacchus, from Falmouth for San Francisco. On Oct. 27th, in the strait of Le Maire, the French bark, Felicite, from Havre for Valparaiso, 69 days out."

The Phœnician brings dates from Havre to 4th January. Her mails were delivered to-day.

The fine Allan steamer Buenos Ayrean, which sailed from Montevideo on 5th January arrived at Havre on the 30th January, all well on board, after a passage of 28 days, including stoppage for coaling at St. Vincent.

The Telegrafo Maritimo gives the following further particulars of the storm:—

'The wharves of the Saladeros on the Cerro have been greatly damaged, and the waters entered the killing-grounds, occasioning serious loss.

'Seven sailors of the American barque Marion were saved by the cutter Garibaldi.

'The waters were furious at the Pocitos and the bathing houses suffered in consequence. The rails of the tramway to that favorite spot are covered with three feet of fine sand.

'It is calculated that the waters rose over 4 metres; in part of the barracks of 5th Cazadores the water was unusualy deep, and the street could be navigated.

"The P.R.N.C. Cordillera dragged her anchors to near the Flores Island.

One of the bathing-boxes at the South end have disappeared.

"All the telegraph wires are interrupted.

"Every vessel in port dragged her anchor, and several small embarkations foundered, but it aphears there has been no lose of life.

"The Aubepine, Ocean Spray, and Catherine Auld hoisted signals of distress. The English barque John Patten was saved by the Neptuno and Leon.

The Rosario Custom House will soon beat the Montevidean; the receipts last month were $f 218,831 34 cts, which tells us plainly how fast Rosario is going ahead.

The Directors of the new Santa Fe Railway, the Western of Santa Fe, have made a call on the shares.

We made a slight mistake in our notice of the dividend paid last year by the Italian Bank when we said that for the first half of the year it gave 5 o/o and the second half year 7 o/o, when in reality it paid for the first half hear of 1881 7½ o/o gold and for the second half year 7 o/o, making in all for the year 1881 dividend paid by this prosperous Bank 14½ o/o gold, which we believe is the largest dividend paid by any of our banks. It is no wonder that the shares of this Bank should be at 50 o/o premium gold, and considered as one of the best gold dividend paying stocks in the R. Plate. The following shows the dividends paid by this Bank since it started'—

1873........	12½ o/o gold.
74........	13 do
75........	11½ do
76........	8 do
77........	8 do
78........	8½ do
79........	9 do
80........	11½ do
81........	14½ do
Total..	96 o/o gold.

Thus the Italian Bank has in 9 years returned to its shareholders 96 o/o, besides putting aside reserve fund and writing off bad debts. The shareholders may well present the talented manager Chevalier Pollinini with a pair of white kid glove and a laurel leaf for his hat. The reserve fund of this Bank is now 207,409 pats, and the following is the balance-sheet:—

COMMERCIAL NEWS

Jan. 24th

In spite of the tropical heat the speculation in the gold market to-day was brisk; over 300,000 pats gold sold at various rates. The market opened weak and closed firm at official hours. Shortly afterwards the rate was at 25.07½ for cash buyers. The heat was so intense that Mr Beccar in person went to Treina & Croppi's thermometer that at the time marked 39 centigrads above zero. Gold for February was firm and a rise of 5 cents was experienced to-day; rates for end of March and April are at 25.40.

Cedulas to-day were unusually weak, and Series A was sold at 100½. The business done was insignificant and the rate looks very low for an 8 o/o stock. In Series E nothing was done; this series was much beared last week, and cannot sustain itself.

In National Bank Shares we note a scarcity of sellers. The market was evidentlg very buoyant and prices recovered with ease. The bears are utterly defeated by the rising tendency of the stock. The business of official hours only amounted to one-half of what was done yesterday, and the bulls state that the bears have no more shares to sell, unless at 'descubierta'. The animation at the ring seemed to keep on a par with the rising mercury of the thermometer. Shipbrokers, especially, and their exchange colleagues complained of the heat.

The 'bulletin' of the Republica with Minister Pizarro's resignation sold faster on the Bolsa at noon than gold, Cedulas, or National Bank Shares; bets were freely made as to whether the President would accept it, or not; the prevalent opinion being that the President would not accept it, and notwithstanding, the letters exchanged between the Gouernor and the President, every one believes that Pizarro's only indiscretion was speaking out too freely opinions that were entertained by all the National party, but concealed; Dr. Pizarro has spoken out with such a freedom that the Provincial Legislators will not accept the Provincial Minister's explanations, and the Capital of the Province will in all probability be temporarily moved out this week. One of the most important matters in dispute was settled yesterday, namely the stamping of legal papers on the passing over of the various lawsuits to the National Courts. The Provincial stamps will not be required as a preliminary, but the Federal Judges undertake that in the prosecution of the suits be ore them, they will see before the cases are tried that the necessary Provincial stamps are affixed, and this settles this very severe question.

Since the memorable year of 1871, we have not had such intense heat as at present. To-day people went about with handerchiefs around their necks, hats off, some coats off, others with fans; every one exclaimed what extraordinary heat! Spite, however, of the burning furnace-like atmosphere of the Bolsa, the ring was formed at the appointed hour and much animation ruled in National Bank Shares; the fight between bulls and bears being very evenly divided; the men up from Montevideo came back with fresh vigour, and according to general report they all covered their bathing expenses down there by successful Deuda Amortizable speculations. All our friends have bought the stock under present quotation, but they still hold the stock and have not sold out; it seeme to us that the real difficulty for our friends will be to realize at present prices.

Jan. 25th

The rain relieved the market greatly to-day; last night's wind has also cleared the political sky. The news from Europe influenced the gold market in a remarkable manner, and the demand for gold was very large. The market opened at 25.05, but prices stiffened readily and large amounts were sold at 25.10. Holders asked later on 25.15. Rates for end of February and March remained unchanged. The great topic on 'Change was the resignation of Mr Pizarro, and its acceptance by the President; opinions are split on the subject, but in general the acceptance of the resignation is applauded as it cuts short the difficulty and removes all bad feeling in Provincial quarters.

The Cedula market was singularly dull to-day, not a single operation effected. The weakness in this stock is unaccountable.

The bears entered the National Bank Share market this morning with a vengeance and drove prices before them. All the influences of the 'bajistas' was brought to bear on the market, and rates tumbled to 129 for cash. For end of month prices opened very dull at 130, fell to 129 and touched bottom at 128¾; here there was a pause and the stock rose steadily to 129¼, closing firm at this price. There is an opinion on Change that the 'descubierta' operations this month are very much larger than in December, no extraordinary fact, considering the high rates of the stock since the beginning of the month. The bears have worked strenuously for the last two weeks to depress the market, and only a partial success has been achieved and the stock is yet buoyant. Large sales were made for the end of next month; prices opened at 132, fell to 131, and the market closed firm at 131¼. There was little animation in the market, and general attention was concentrated on the meeting at 3 p.m.

There was nothing doing in other stock. Primitive Gas Shares were offering in the market, but there were no buyers at the high rates asked.

Jan. 26th

The strain on the gold market continues and prices are very firm. It was stated that the Provincial Bank is restricting discounts in paper, and there is a prevalent opinion that paper money is getting rapidly scarce. The Bank discounts in gold that is sold immediately in the market, and finally results in an increase of buyers of gold at long dates; the policy of the Bank is viewed with suspicion in the market, and the tightening of paper money as usual is much disliked; when the paper money gets scarce all, the stocks in the market are affected and generally weakened. Gold rates to-day ruled for cash at 25.10 buyers; for end of month 25.15; for end of February 25.30, and end of March 25.40.

Cedulas continue weak; some sales in Series A were effected for cash and end of the month at 100½. Both Series E and A are weak, and operations in this stock for the moment are very limited.

The speculation in National Bank Shares was brisker to-day than yesterday; the bears renewed their attacks, but prices remained firm; people in general believe that the stock will remain about the present quotations until the end of the month. No weakness is visible in the stock, although there are many shares floating in the market, since only 25,000 shares have been deposited up to the present in the National Bank, in view of the meeting at the end of the month. Prices to-day opened weak and closed firm; the business of official hours did not amount to much. Cash prices opened at 129, rose to 129½, and closed at 129¼. Over 2,000 shares were sold for the end of month; prices opening at 130 falling to 129¼, and closing 129½. 1,500 shares were sold for end of February; the market for the latter date closed at 131½. The cash sales have been during the month very slight, and speculation has been mainly directed towards operations for the end of the month, and especially for the end of February. Operations, nevertheless, for the end of February have fallen off somewhat, and the great contest now is for the end of the present month, when the liquidation will fall like a sledge-hammer on many.

Jan. 27th

There was a general stand-from-under feeling in the market to-day, everything gave way and gold went up. There is no denying the fact that the dispute between both Governments prepared the way to the weakening of all stocks and securities in the market. The Pizarro correspondence has created much suspicion and distrust, and these letters are shaking the confidence of the market. The rumors flying about are various, and the general commercial crisis in France, Belgium and the North of Italy has thrown a gloom on the market. Gold rose to-day, although much of it is offered on the market, but rates on time slackened. At present nobody wants to owe anything in gold as there is a general impression that the premium on gold will rise. The gold business of the day was not very important; prices opened at 25.10 and closed at 25.15 for cash. For end of the month the rates are the same, for end of March gold was sold at 25.35. On the top of telegrams announcing failures in Verviers and Bordeaux comes the news that several firms in Genoa have smashed. The Courrier de la Plata this morning had some interesting details about the state of the Paris money market in the month of December. It appears that the Prime Minister Gambetta had an interview with Mr Rothschild on the state of financial affairs. Much was expected from this interview, but the news of the crisis in France and the resignation of Gambetta and of his Cabinet comes to dispel the illusion. Frenchmen in the market state that the failure of Gambetta in his bill on the revision of the Constitution forebodes the advent of a more moderate Cabinet, and closes the doors to all attempts of the radical party to get into power. The Chamber, to judge by the failure of the Gambetta bill, will never allow Clemenceaux in the Cabinet. It was rumured that the houses that failed in Bordeaux numbered twelve, and most of them carried on business with India and the U. States. In Genoa there is also a crisis, which means more emigration from the North of Italy to the R. Plate.

The Cedula market ruled exceedingly weak; it is long time since the stock has been so depressed. Series A was sold to-day at 99¾, under par, the best interest paying stock in the market. Series E has suffered a real 'degringolade', tumbling from 89 to 84 o/o; the series is exceptionally weak and was sold for end of March at 83 o/o. The entire Cedula market looks downwards, and the only cause can be found in the rise of gold. When the premium on gold rises all stocks in general go down, and Cedulas follow in the wake. The feeling of the market is weak.

There was a panic in the National Bank Shares market, and parties who realized in the first days of the week rub their hands in glee. The bulls let go to-day and prices fell with every sale. The King lost heart and threw Shares on the market, which drove down the market very suddenly. The break in the stock was noticeable last night, although there were few sellers, and few anticipated the bearish aspect of to-day's operations. Those who hold Shares cash are all right, as they can afford to keep them, and the stock pays a good interest, but others can only get rid of the stock at a heavy shave. It must be borne in mind that last week and during the first days of the present one many parties realized; they bought up Shares in the beginning of the month at 123, and were only too glad to sell at 131 for end of the month, and 133 for end of February. As the liquidation of the month approaches misgivings increase, and the differences to be met are very heavy. Prices to-day tumbled from 128, last night's closing rate to 124, a fall of 4 for end of the month. The fluctuations were tremendous and 7,400 shares were moved off like burning coals. Close on 5,000 shares were sold for end of February at 129, 128 and finally 127; only the other day sellers asked 133¾. For cash nothing is doing; only 20 sold at 126, which does not reflect the market rate. It remains to be seen now if outside parties will step in and buy up at present rates, the opening ones of the present month.

Jan. 28th

Very much gold was thrown on the market to-day, as could be seen by the operations at the ring; large amounts also changed hands privately, showing that there is much more available gold than at first supposed. The Provincial Bank also continues to discount in gold, and sales for cash are weak in consequence. Very many parties are, nevertheless, distrustful and secure gold on time at a relatively high premium; they foresee a danger in the market at long dates and act in consequence. Rates to-day show a difference of 10 per cent as compared with prises paid yesterday morning. Prices for cash opened at at 25.10; they fell to 25.05 buyers, sellers offered 25.07½. For end of the month very large amounts were sold at the ring and out side at 25.10. Rates at long dates rose and look firm; for end of march prices opened at 25.35 and closed at 25.40. Some heavy operations were effected for the middle of the year end of June and of July at 25.50. The rise in prices for long date is attributed to an uneasy feeling as regards both financial and political prospects in the country. Mr Pizarro's letter this morning was very virulent and brings the light of other days around us, but many devoutly hope that the correspondence will soon terminate.

In spite of the weakness noted in Cedulas, the prospects of the Stock in the market are good. The present weakness in Series A is considered by very many as merely transitory, owing to fears entertained of a rise in gold. The fall in Cedulas of Series E has been simply extraordinary, and the fall is altogether too sudden: prices in this Series have weakened since yesterday, making a fall of 6 per cent. in two days. We remark that new buyers are entering the Cedula market, and many intend to secure Seria A at present rates. The business done to-day was more important than yesterday, but still it does not amount to much. Few people anticipated this fall in the Cedula market, and considered the stock firm at quotations of the begining of the week. Series A was slightly weaker than yesterday, falling ¼ for the end of the month; some operations were effected at 99¾. The market closed pretty firm at present rates.

The turn in the National Bank Share market is accentuated and the situation looks very bullish. The bulls who sold out so strongly yesterday bought in heavily to-day. The efforts of the bulls are strenuous and they have managed to make the stock firm in appearance. The speculation for end of February is assuming larger proportions. Operations for cash are very rare, owing to the approach of the end of the month, and few Shares can be secured. The bulls are trying to make the best out of the situation, and the differences of yesterday—4 per cent in a few hours—are expected to tell heavily at the final liquidation of the month. Little attention is paid to the approaching meeting of the Shareholders of the Bank, as the largest amounts of the shares are now floating in the market for speculative purposes. The fall of yesterday has, nevertheless, seriously shaken the confidence of the market, and many view the situation of the stock with apprehension.

Jan. 30th

The demand for gold to-day on 'Change was scarce and the supply large. Prices are weak and rates for cash and to morrow are at 25.05. The market was very dull, and few believe in a rise in gold for the present, since the French crisis and Capital question have been fairly talked out. At Minister Del Viso's fine residence in the Calle Rivadavia an interview was held between General Roca, Minister Del Viso, and Governor Rocha and Minister Uriburu. The question of the moment was the new Provincial Capital, and Governor Rocha received assurances that his stay in this city, even up to the end of the year, would cause no inconvenience to the National Government. We hear that before the 15th of next month the message on the new Capital will be presented to the Provincial Legislature, when the question will be ventilated and discussed. It would appear that Ensenada offers the most advantages, and that the old town of Tolosa in that neighborhood is to be the favored suitor for the honor. At all events the Provincial Government must select some small town or another in the neighborhood of this city for the present, and there are no probabilities of the Legislators decreeing the erection of a Capital in the desert. There is, nevertheless, no spot better suited for the Provincial Capital than Bahia Blanca, in spite of the crabs, but it will take a century before the Capital will be moved to that far-off spot.

Cedulas were slightly firmer to-day and operations in Series A were done at par. Series E is weak, and in fact the business doing in Cedulas is very limited. Should the stock be in demand prices would rise quickly. There has been some talk of starting branches of the Mortgage Bank in the neighbouring camp towns; the rumour no doubt arose when the Provincial Bank decided to establish branches in the suburbs of this city; that the new Mortgage branches are on the "tapis" it would be premature to state, but as our readers know the bill framed in the Legislature last month on the Bank stipulates that these sucursales must be created and that every branch of the Provincial Bank is a natural agent of the Mortgage Bank. The sooner these new sucursales are started the better, and we are sure that the Bank will double its business in the rural districts by the measure.

Jan. 31st

In spite of the very unfavorable news by cablegram from Europe the gold market to-day remained very quiet, and the great supply of specie in the market kept rates at 25.05. Nevertheless, the purchases of gold during the last two days have been very large, but the Provincial Bank controls the market, and even rates at long dates have weakened in consequence. Mails by the Equateur give a gloomy account of the state of affairs in France, and in Bordeaux the head of a large firm had disappeared, leaving liabilities to the extent of thirty millions of francs, with few or no assets whatever. This affair placed several banks in a most critical situation. One suspended payments, the very day of the catastrophe, whilst two others closed their doors shortly afterwards. The panic in Bordeaux seems to have produced a most uneasy feeling in France. The telegrams to hand to-day look very bad also, and it appears that there is a general squeeze on the Continent, and even England is affected by same. In this market nothing has been felt, and gold is weak. The rates of last week cannot be maintained, and those who bought at 25.15 are 'casaring' to-day. In spite of the bad weather business was pretty brisk, as to-day is the end of the month.

Cedulas continue rather feeble, and many expect Series E to decline more before the week is out. The market is very unsteady and prices have weakened since yesterday. Operations were effected to-day as low as 99½. Series E has hardened somewhat and we note a rise of 1½ o/o since yesterday.

Nat. Bank shares ruled flat, in spite of the story that the bulls had got enough money to buy up every share offered. The market was no doubt much firmer than last night, when prices tumbled suddenly to a very low ebb, but the rates could not be maintained to-day. There is evidently a break in the market, and the stock looks bearish enough. A large number of shares were sold to-day cash; rates opened at 127, but declined gradually to 126½, there was a revival at one time, when rates rose to 127½, but they subsequently collapsed and closed at 126½, slightly firmer than last night.

The Bolsa opened this morning in the midst of a San Blas storm, and rude as were the elements the telegrams from Europe were still ruder. The Bank of England save under the greatest pressure never alters its rate but on Board days, yet the news this morning was that the Bank yesterday raised its rate to 6 per cent, which shows pretty clearly how affairs stand in London. News from the Continent was still worse, and they said that money in Antwerp is worth 9 per cent, which to many here read as a stoppage of all business. From Paris we saw no telegram, but the whole ring talked of Les Alpines, just as if they knew as much about this stock as they do of Banco Nacional; some chatty Frenchmen on 'Change talked of a Bourse crisis in Paris to-day, but all we know of this business is a whisper; they say, however, that it was the advent of to-day's liquidation in Paris that made the Bank of England put up its rate so very suddenly yesterday. The news taken on a whole means exchange down here, and a somewhat tighter money market. Merchants in their legitimate business, however, need not be alarmed, as we hear on undoubted authority that the Provincial Bank has taken steps, so that all the year it will not draw under 49½.

Feb. 1st

The market presented the usual features of the first days of the month, and everything, except shares, ruled dull, more especially being also on the eve of a holiday. The telegram from London that we published in the morning attracted general attention, and the very insignificant, there is an improvement in the rates, especially in those of Series E. The market, nevertheless, is not firm, and there is no decided tendency in the stock, and the rates greatly depend on the demand and supply of paper money in the market. As it is, paper money is tightening very much in the market, and discounts are becoming more difficult every day. The Government Proveeduria Bills are being more quoted at higher rates, and brokers prognosticate a very tight money market. It is expected that the Banks, nevertheless, will be more liberal next week.

There is an improved feeling in the National Bank Share market, and all the brokers are in high spirits, owing to the very smooth liquidation of last night. Many thought that the liquidation would have proved a stronger test, but everything has turned out for the best. The market approves unanimously of the new Directors of the Bank and Suplentes. The stock is buoyant for the moment, and one well known bull offered to buy shares by the thousand at the opening prices of this morning; the situation in consequence looks bullish, and rates are firmly maintained all over the line. Operations, nevertheless, to-day were limited, owing to the fact that to-morrow is a holiday, and many brokers were settling up last month's accounts.

The result of the Provincial Land auction we hear has been telegraphed to London, where it will produce a most favorable impression. People in England will see that the great capital of this country is land—the very best of capitals. The auction has had a most favorable influence on lands in general, only we would prefer to see more stock on the camps and less speculation. At the rate speculators are operating we may look forward to an over-speculation and a squeeze in the land business. Good camps fetch good prices, but they only turn out a safe investment when bought for stocking purposes.

A German subscriber who arrived on Change at 5 p.m. from Boca informed us that the deluge scene down there reminded one of the great inundations of the Rhine. The waters subsided somewhat this morning, but rose again in the afternoon. Happily the Boca population is aquatic, quite amphibious, and the people do not mind breakfasting and dining with water up to their waists. Little boys can be seen swimming about in the streets like ducks, and some owners of corralones were nearly drowned trying to get into their yards. The inundation is the largest ever seen in the Boca, and the waters are still rising; all business is stopped, and for the present there are no prospects of selling ñandubay posts and steel wire for the next 24 hours. The 'Tir Suisse' has suspended its meeting, as the members cannot get to the site of pleasure unless they engage a Chargeurs Reunis steamer.

The gale in Montevideo, as will be seen by telegram in another column, has been very stiff, sinking some small vessels. In our port carts were at a discount, and the lighters came right up to the landing-place at the Custom House, where the bales were rolled into the lighters with some facility. The loading went on slowly as only three lighters could come alongside at a time.

Baltar & Quesada's auction mart to-day reminded one of the Mouseé Cluny in Paris. Most beautiful alabaster vases and bric-a-bracs were sold for mere bargains. Fine oil-paintings, what the French would term 'croutes,' were knocked down to the highest bidders for scarcely anything. The auction mart has assumed an artistic countenance of late: statues and statuettes, oil-paintings and water-colors, porcelain and alabaster, ladies' dresses and jewelry have usurped the place of thorough-breds and blood-stock, of Rambouillets and Negrettes, of Durhams and Trakenens. A magnificent coffin, beautifully ornamented, was exhibited at the auction to-day; the total appendage was so well constructed that it removed all the misgivings of death.

At afterhours some important gold transactions took place: 100,000 $f were sold by a leading broker, disposable for Saturday at 25.10; other sales were effected for end of the month at 25.30, some 50,000 $f. sold. The gold market closed firm. Some exchange in first class paper was done at 49⅞ sterling: in francs nothing. National Bank shares ruled flat; one party sold out at 128½ for end of the month. No cash operations were effected, and the market closes at 129 for end of the month.

The San Blas storm has interfered with telegraph communication between this city and Patagones. Series of people have presented themselves to the telegraph office, with a view to send messages to Choel-e-choel and other parts, but the lines are interrupted since Monday. The heavy gale last night must have done much injury to all the wires in this Province. In the port the river was so rough that the passengers per Equateur could only disembark yesterday; most of the passengers were sea-sick, and loading and discharging are suspended for the moment. The gale has been stronger in Montevideo than up here, and it has been remarked that for the first time since very many years a storm has visited the River Plate in the finest period of the year. The streets yesterday were lined with rivulets on each side of the pavement, and in the more remote quarters near the Once it is next to impossible getting into one's house. The roads near the Corrales are simply intransitable.

The new, large machines introduced lately by Mr P San Germes for his sugar factory in the Province of Santiago del Estero will be put up this month. The sugar plantations of Santiago are now competing with those of Tucuman, and it appears that the soil of the former Province is more favorable to the industry. Misiones lags behind, although some plantations have been begun in that territory. The day is not distant when this Republic will produce as much sugar as wheat, to meet the consumption at home. The Government should foster these industrial enterprises and exonerate them from "patentes" and taxes during several years; in Misiones for example, a Federal territory, all taxation should be abolished for a term of five years; this measure would throw thousands of settlers into that district, and the results would promptly show the advantages of the decree. Taxation, difficult means of communication and insecurity stifle progress in the far-off Provinces and territories of the Nation; the removal of the first of these obstacles would be quite sufficient for the moment, and would be a most beneficial check on the growing taxation of the neighboring Provinces.

REPRESENTATIVE IN Buenos Ayres
Edw. F. Powers.

The above Company have acquired the Rights, Patents, Concessions, Goodwill and Interests of Frederick Allan Gower and Benjamin D. Manton, as existing under a contract between them, dated July 20th, 1880, in the City of Providence, Rhode Island, in the U. States of America.

It is now the purpose of this Co pany to extend Telephonic Communication t the Public of the City and Province of Buenos Ayres on a more thorough and system t o plan than heretofore attempted. To accomplish this they will supply the latest approved form of the Gower-Bell Loud-speaking Telephone with appurtenances for same of the most recent and perfect manufacture, and at the same time having at hand a thoroughly experienced and efficient staff of operatives and assistants, hope t attain such success as will bring them to the front as the First Telephone Company of the River Plate.

When a commercial, and even a social, community have the full benefits of a well-organized Telephone system, it is only then the many and great conveniences of this wonderful invention are thoroughly understood and fully appreciated. It is the wish of the Company to effect this in Buenos Ayres, as has already been done in all large cities of the United States, where it is estimated more than 500,000 instruments are in use. In fact, it has come into such universal use there that its loss would be most severely fe t by the Public generally. The Company will introduce into this city the American system in its entirety.

The management would ask the kind indulgence of the Public for a few weeks, as much has to be done and many obstacles overcome before the proposed system can be put in a satisfactory condition, at the same time he begs to state it will be his utmost endeavour to give as perfect a service immediately as is consistent with the multitude of work on hand.

As Buenos Ayres is a city of magnificent distances, the Gower-Bell Telephone will be found in its working the most practicable as well as the simplest and strongest instrument ever invented, and it was on account of these favorable and self-evident qualities that it was specially adopted as THE TELEPHONE for the Telegraph Department by the British Government, who have contracted with the above named Company for 10,000 instruments. It is also extensively used in France and Belgium, where it has given general satisfaction.

The Compauy has secured the fine and commanding premises situated at 128 Calle Florida, where it would be pleased to exhibit the working of its system to those of the public who are interested in the development of this great time-saving invention.

Subscriptions to Exchanges, $175 per month.

Private Lines, special terms on application.

Any further information the Local Representative would be pleased to give personally or by letter.

Four Rooms. Splendid Woodwork
Base for sale incredibly low
20,000 dollars currency
On Sunday February 12th
At 2 p.m. sharp

We shall sell for the highest bid, over and above the stipulated base, for cash this beautiful house in the picturesque town of San Martin, only three squares from the Plaza and the Station, and comprising four fine rooms, kitchen, well, etc, all surrounded by footpath and so all on high ground, 20 206/1000 metres frontage by 43 300/1000 metres deep.

The house is of modern construction and well finished, being very suitable for a small family not only for its proximity to the Capital, but also for its position in the rising town of San Martin, and the great advantage of being so near the plaza, and also the station.

The title deeds are in perfect order, and can be examined at our house, San Martin 51.

On the Southern Railway
Lots from
150 to 500 squares of fertile Land
One lot of 989 squares (of 150x150)
Railway Station on the Land
Very low Price
Half cash, half on time with two years to pay.

For what you pay for rent you can acquire this land the sale of which will be effected by us.

In Our House,
51—San Martin—51
On Friday, February 17th
At 3 p.m.

We shall sell on the above conditions this magnificent camp which formed part of the Estancia 'La Colorada', situated in the partido of Las Flores. The Southern Railway, runs through the land and there is a station on the property.

As the camp is so well know for the excellent quality of its pastures, any praise would only be superfluous. The following lagunas are in the camp:—Del Sauce, del Medio, del Quemado, de la Naranja and others of less importance.

The land has been fractioned into 14 small lots and will be sold in one or more lots at option of buyers.

Lot Nro. 14 comprises the estancia house 'La Colorada', containing 6 rooms with papered walls, wooden floors and a surrounded by two corridors. There is a galpon 10 yards by 30 and another building of three rooms suitable for a mayordomo.

A fine quinta fenced and ditched. Besides there are 4 or 5 puestos in this fraction with zinc roofs. The superficial arrea is 1167 squares and 18,941 square varas with some fine lagunas.

The other fractions are of regular formation and have been made of small size to suit the wants of agriculturists as the soil is excellent and adopted for tillage. The building on these lots will be included in the sale.

A Beautiful
VILLA
NEAR SAN MARTIN
Only 6 squares from the town
On the highway of
RAMOS MEJIA
Every Accommodation
Property of
Mr. WYSOSKI, C. E.
At our mart 51—SAN MARTIN—51
Base of sale $150,000 m|c
On Saturday, February 4th
At 3 p.m.

We shall sell for the highest offer over the base this splendid and admirably situated property, only 6 squares from the town of San Martin, in the partido of that name, and only a short distance from Olivos, which it is presumed will be made the future Capital of the Province.

It should not be forgotten that the law is sanctioned for making a macadamized road from Belgrano to the Tigre which passing through Saavedra will shorten the road to this beautiful Villa.

The Villa is known as the new or white house of Major Wysoski. The ground is 10 squares by 6160 vs or say 231,160 sq. varas.

The house has 7 rooms on the ground floor with azotea roof and 3 rooms on second storey with French tile roofs, kitchen, room for cook, dairy house, store room, apartments and kitchen for peons, poultry house, three rooms on ground floor and 3 on second storey with galvanized iron roofs, corrals of posts and boards, corridors with French tile roofs, wire fences with ñandubay posts, and also in some parts cina-cina.

The property is mortgaged to the Mortgage Bank for 2600 pats.

Title deeds in perfect order.

The Villa can be visited by taking the Campana train to San Martin and from thence by carriage (charge $10) to the house.

For further details apply at our house, San Martin 51.

300 Squares of extra-superior Camp

The richest and most complete in the neighbourhood of the Capital, land high, and undulating and consisting of beautiful vales, water permanent, fruitful soil suitable for agriculture, will be sold in small lots or in one lot. The attention of agriculturists is directed to the fact, that the camp is on the river Conchas adjoining the Morales' bridge, alongside Molino Bancalari. This camp should be visited; there is no better in the province in regard to height, beauty, splendid pastures and picturesque situation

And an opportunity of convincing yourself of this fact is offered you by attending the sale which will be held on the camp itself.

On Sunday the 4th of September, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, we shall proceed to sell to the highest bidder this magnificent piece of camp, divided into lots to place it within the reach of small capitals.

This camp needs no praise from us; a visit from anyone interested in acquiring land for cultivation or pasturage will be quite sufficient.

In regard to height it is most elevated, its undulations reminding one of the Banda Oriental.

From the ground a fine view is obtained of Moron, Moreno and Bella Vista, &c. With regard to the elevation of the land we remember the remark of a gentleman occupying a high position in the Government—'If it depended on me, I should have the new Capital built here.' So much for the height of it.

The land is covered with grasses of the very best kinds suiting for pasturing or for wintering animals. There is an offer to rent the land with a contract at $120,000 m/c per annum. Therefore as agricultural land or for pasture, this ground is unsurpassed, and is equally adapted for either. The land has 2,065 varas frontage on the river Conchas by 3,600 vs depth, it is situated alongside of Morales' bridge, on the right hand side, and has been subdivided in small lots, but can be bought in one lot at option of purchaser.

In one word Liquidation of the celebrated establishment of

On Wednesday February 27th
at 12 o'clock

We shall sell the stock of above breeding establishment so justly famous for the many victories achieved on the turf by the excellent animals bred there.

Estancieros are well aware of the patience and untiring zeal displayed by Mr Reid in forming this stud farm, as he selected and imported into this country, animals of great merit which have been under the immediate charge of Mr Church. Seldom is there an opportunity of this kind offered, and this is due only to Mr Reid's determination to retire from business.

Zeuone, San Jeane, Venus, Toscas, Pichon, etc, have given on our race courses ample proof of their blood by carrying off the highest prizes. With such facts before us, it would be quite superfluous to praise the breed of 'Las Barrancas'.

N.B. There will be a special train and carriages at the station to take out and bring back all parties interested.

We shall sell in onr mart, San Martin 51, for the highest bid over and above the stipulated base, four leagues of exceptionally good camp situated near the second frontier line, where the encampment of Pincen's Indians used to be, and which were purchased by the present proprietor by the advice of Col Godoy Commander Norris, Spikeman and other officers of the army.

The lot appears in the map with the name of Carlos Urioste and the next adjoining neighbours are Messrs Berro, Drysdale, M C Rodriguez and N M Auld.

The camp is in every sense excellent, it having been stocked for many years with cattle and mares while Pincen and his tribe resided there and on which camp he was captured by Gen. Villegas.

The Railway to Bahia Blanca will traverse the Camp
Permanent Water
BASE OF SALE $111 M/C PER HECTAREA
On Tuesday, Feb. 7th
At 3 p.m.
In our mart, San Martin 51

We shall sell by order and for account of proprietor, for the highest bid over and above the mentioned base, a piece of land situated in the district of Juarez, and known as the Fortin de las Saladas. Camp which was selected by Gen. Rivas for wintering cavalry horses, and which the Indians previously made use of for the same purpose. We remind the public of these facts in order that they may be able to form an accurate idea of the excellent quality and abundance of the pastures on the camp.

The lake called Las Saladas is about four squares by 5, contains potable water supplied from permanent springs. Situated on the borders of the camp is the lake, La Totora, also an important sheet of water. This camp adjoins the properties of Messrs Santa Marima, Mariano Roldan, Zabala Bernardo, Arriaga, Jose Maria Nuñez, Pedro Rivas and Leloir.

We call attention to the very low valuation put on the land; the adjoining land called La Totora was sold in 1876 for a higher price than the base of this sale, and we also remind the public of the late sale of the Lomas de Lara which realized $1,050,000 m/c per league.

The bus which leaves Azul for Bahia Blanca stops at La Gloria which is on Mr Santa Marima's camp and adjoining the land which we shall auction.

There are still due to Government 4 bills of $20.000 m/c each.

For plans and further details apply at our mart 51 San Martin.

Base of sale $150,000 m|c p. league
Payable in Instalments
On Friday February 10th.
At 2 p.m.

At our mart, we will sell the above magnificent camp, for the highest bid over and above the stipulated base. The land comprises 4 leagues, of which two thirds are on the bank of the Sauce Chico, which always provides an unlimited supply of water.

The class of camp is unsurpassed.

The river divides it from the important establishment of Mr Tornquist.

Lands alongside have recently been sold at from 170,000 to 180,000 m|c per league.

The conditions of sale are half cash, and half in 5 years time, the camp being mortgaged for amount.

The railway will pass through the land.

GREAT NEWS

REPORT

ON

THE ENGINES AND THRESHERS

OF

Clayton & Shuttleworth

Imported by Tomas Drysdale & Co., and derected by

Mr. G. Russell Brown

NOW WORKING AT CHIVILCOY.

The attention of Chacareros and others is called to the following important recommendation from Don Lorenzo Martino of Chivilcoy:—

"At the request of Don Gregorio Villafañe and with the greatest personal satisfaction and pleasure I hereby declare that the working of Messrs Clayton and Shuttleworth's Engine and Thresher was all that could be desired, and it would be my greatest satisfaction to have all the Chacareros of this Partido and of Chacabuco and Bragado to be present at the working of these machines, in order that they might have an opportunity of corroborating this Certificate I so willingly give. I consider these machines to be of the most perfect economy and a great encouragement to Chacra work.'

(Signed)

Lorenzo Martino
